CALIFORNIA.

The powers conferred on the Federal Government were scrutinized, and were then, as now, deemed by patriotic men of that day. Such a provision as the one we have supposed would have been rejected with indignation and contempt.

So jealous were these sagacious men of the encroachments of Federal power, that they were not satisfied to leave it to be inferred that this new Government could use only the powers granted, they insisted on the explicit assertion: "The powers not granted to the United States, by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively to the people."

Whence, then, comes this power to usurp the powers of States? It does not exist in the shape of a plenary inflicted on the States, but in the form of an inparution of the Constitution. It is a bold, impudent usurpation of power.

This power is to be applied to four of the original thirteen States, that made and ratified the Constitution.

The men at Washington ought to see that the laws they propose carry with them no moral obligation upon the people of those States. They owe such laws no obedience, except what force commmands. Neither the present generation nor their fathers ever conferred superiority upon the men at Washington.

Might, not right, must give way to laws.

WE often hear from the lips of these parties the charge of perfidy against the rebels, because many of them had taken the oath to support the Constitution; but the rebels have this justification or excuse: Passing over the right of secession, there is the right of revolution, when a government becomes subservient of these ends, &c. All oaths of allegiance are conditional. But here are men who hold power under this Constitution, and daily almost, swear to support it, and yet usurp power with an unscrupulousness that is Satanic.

When the Judge of all the earth reviews these charges of perfidy, if the Radicals escape, the rebels need not fear!

LEA Radical Boston writer writes:

"The black men prove themselves unreconcileable, and go over to our enemies, at the most interesting crisis in the effort making for their elevation; they will exhibit a want of wisdom and resolution which will add powerfully to the arguments used against them."

If the negroes all vote the Radical ticket, they will show that they are fit to rule the country. If they will not, then show their utter inability to enjoy the right of suffrage. The Radicals are disfranchising white men on the same principle, and show great consistency.

LEA The Mexicans recently went about the streets of their capital, crying "We are rebel," We do not know whether he has been captured or not.

LEA Radical Boston writer writes:

"South can't be loyal because Gen. Joseph Welles is not a good man, and he has had to let the Democratic party think as they please, and the vast majority think as they please, and the Radicals are not of a section, based on the ashes of the past, for ashes will not burn. These Northern

Radicals are supported North, not for their merits, but on what the majority

North regard as the unpardonable sins of the South. The Democrats North admit

they will not be seduced into Radicalism on the other side. They know that will be fatal to them at home, if it were not in itself a unitary party.

LEA It is reported that the British Minister at Washington has informed our Government that another invasion of Canada by Fenians would be considered an attack on United States troops.

How can we expect the success of Conservative men North whilst we furnish their enemies with the ammunition which it will take many a year to recover, if indeed, it has not sacrificed the hope of free government.

We do not know what may think of his past record, what others may think, we are not their confessors. They need not confess sins or errors to us; but they need to let the Democratic party think as they please, and the vast majority think as they please, and the Radicals are not

of a section, based on the ashes of the past,

in itself a unitary party.

LEA The Philadelphia Press thinks it humiliating that North Carolina should have passed a law granting amnesty to U.S. soldiers for acts done during the war.

It is more humiliating that some Radicals made it necessary.

LEA Fletcher, of Missouri, is angrily asking why United States soldiers are being sent to that State. It is to represent three thousand militia bush whackers called out.

LEA The whole opposition can unite, if they will keep their terrors, and support Democratic men, and make no mistake to claim that only acknowledge themselves, and which, if put forward, will destroy their opponents.

LEA Indeed, the Radicals will rejoice to see this claim of merit in the lost cause set up in Kentucky's Democratic.

It is just the capital they need.

If the South will only persevere in this course, the Northern Radicals can keep power for ever. Their political success will be a most material result.

We protest agains any such party. It is not the Democratic party of the United States, and cannot be. It will do an untold harm to the South.

Gen. Sherman has been invited by Gen. Barington to Mexico. What can he do there? Recognize Maximilian's Empire?

LEA Moses was like a pair of compasses when he described an arc."
